I was so well pleased with them that when my wife had a severe attack, a short time ago and could hardly get about to do her work, I had her take Doan's Kidney Pills. In two or three days they strengthened her up in fine shape. We both endorse the claims made for Doan's Kidney Pills and have nothing but the highest terms of praise for such a valuable remedy."

Candidates Nominated.

A. Leberman named J. N. Laws for representative, while Thomas Dealey named Herman Wise. Mr. Wise declined. J. H. Hansen named J. V. Burns, and a motion to close the nominations and instruct the secretary to cast the ballot of the convention for Messrs Laws and Burns prevailed.

not run and his name was not presented. Herman Wise nominated B. F. Allen and he was chosen before he could have an opportunity to decline. For treasurer Isaac Bergman was unanimously nominated.

A. Leberman named Simon P. Wilson, C. H. Abercrombie's law partner, for justice of the peace, and the nomination was unanimous. George Noland named C. C. Utzinger for constable, and he was also the unanimous choice.

There were no nominations of precinct officers, but the county committee will attend to that matter.

The committee on platform asked and was granted further time in which to make its report. The report will go to the chairman of the county committee.

B. J. Pye was elected chairman of the county committee, with authority to select three other committeemen from each of the city wards and one from each country precinct.
